1st Cliddesden Brownies

This summer Sian Banks stepped aside from leading 1st Cliddesden Brownies, after setting the group up 17 years ago. She has dedicated so much time and effort to this group, including organising various trips such as visiting the police station and the Watercress Line Steam Illuminations.

She set up the group with the aim to allow the girls to make friendships outside of the lovely, quaint village school and it has led to being a club that many girls from all over Basingstoke travel to.

Elinor and Carys (Sian's daughters) were both in the club at different times, with very fond memories of being with our friends playing games, baking and making arts and crafts. Sharks and lifeguards with the parachute always being a favourite! A notable event in the calendar was always the bake sale at the village panto which included lots of baking both at home and at Brownies!

Sian has had many helpers during those years, in particular Tracey Mathias who has also been helping at Brownies for many years now, and carries on to do so.

Sian decided to step down because her youngest has gone to university, so she hopes to gain some time back and travel more! Thank you to all the volunteers over the years and to the new leaders for taking over. Finally, thank you Sian for everything you have done.

Local Plan Update: Request for Pledges

A big thank you to all who have pledged to support the village in its fight against Upper Swallick.

To date we have only heard from about 10% of the village so hopefully there is still a way to go.

Remember, If Upper Swallick were to go ahead we would lose our beautiful countryside, see a reduction in the value of our property and be swamped by extra traffic. We would also witness irreversible damage to the aquifer below us, compromising our water supply quality, and the loss of valuable agricultural land which is needed for food security.

The necessary professional support will cost a great deal as the fight could go on for some years. We need to move fast to appoint the correct specialist advice and we can only do so if we have adequate financial support from the village.

Any money pledged will remain confidential and however small will help to stop Upper Swallick.

If you can help, would you please email alanbtyler19@btinternet.com with your pledge.

Please give us your support as we move forward.

CLIDDESSEN

September WI report.

This month we celebrated our 103rd birthday! We welcomed our members and two guests from Kempshott WI.

Our speaker for this month was Johnathan Woodhouse with his "Stories as an army musician."

Johnathan started off by explaining where his love for music came from. When he was at school, as a small young boy, he was always the one they called upon to sing the solos. Once he got to senior school and his voice broke, his teacher said "you can't do the solos anymore, so what instrument would you like to play?" He chose the clarinet from a picture on the wall, having no idea what it sounded like!

When he was 15 he auditioned to join the Royal Life Guards Band. Unfortunately, he was too young to sign up at that age so was told to audition again when he was 16. This time he was able to join. He completed 2 years training in Bovington and then 6 months at a riding school learning to ride while holding a clarinet. Johnathan served 26 happy years in the army, leaving in 1999, when he took up teaching the clarinet. Later, after learning the saxophone as a hobby, he went on to teach that too. We were very lucky to have Johnathan play us some lovely tunes on both instruments starting with "Happy Birthday" and ending with "Skyfall" (Jenny named all the tunes!)

The rest of the meeting was filled with lots of chatter and we all enjoyed a lovely spread laid on by the committee.

October WI report

This month we welcomed our members and five visitors to our meeting where we enjoyed refreshments and a speaker. John Hughes, who has extensive experience of observing and counting migratory birds, talked to us about the Goggle Eyed Plover and Stone Curlew breeding on Salisbury plain.

Migratory birds have experienced a 50% decline since 1970s this is due to changes in climate and habitat. Whereas 60m reared game birds are released each year, replacing a number of our native species.

Eurasian Stone-Curlew, better known as the Goggle eyed plover is a long distance migrant with some coming from as far as South Africa. It is now Amber listed, in 2013 there were 365 pairs, this year John hasn't observed even one pair.

Salisbury plain has seen the reintroduction of the Great Bustard, the heaviest flying bird in the world, it has been re-introduced as there were none 30 years ago and there are now 50 pairs.

He is now using new technology, a Song Meter Recorder and a software program to analyse the recording which is more effective and convenient than staying out all night to record any birdsong. Recently the recorder picked up Long Eared Owls and Nightjar.

Our next meeting is planned for 17th November when Richard Cook will talk on Homeopathy curing acute and chronic conditions

I am pleased to report that the Celebration Party held to celebrate the 25 years of the Hall's operation was well attended and a remarkable success, enjoyed by all. The event made a small profit but, more importantly, it is events like this which bring our Community together which is one of the main functions of the Hall.

I would like to thank all those involved in organising the event, and hope this will encourage more events of this nature to be held next year. Suggestions and organisational input are always welcome to allow this to happen.

As we move into the final two months of the year the improvement works to the Hall will continue, with the upgrade of the Disabled Toilet, to be completed during the month, and work progressing the new support track and curtain installation to the Stage Area will take place. We hope that this work may be completed before the Christmas Panto.

On that note I understand that rehearsals have now commenced for this annual highlight, which will take place on the 12th and 13th December, so please save the date and look out for further details and ticket information in this Newsletter.

It's been an amazing autumn, very different from last year, with late flowers, especially dahlias, going on and on. There was a little frost in the valleys where the cold air collects, but above these leaf tipping zones the conditions have been great.

Beetroot, carrot, leeks are better than I expected, fresh sweet corn was, as usual, a treat, and Cavallo Nero after struggling with caterpillars and flea beetles as well as drought, looks set to provide for us soon. Quince fruit has been spectacular, with its own pleasant aroma, which will fill a room for weeks.

Many of you will have sown winter broad beans and planted your garlic and onions to overwinter, ready to grow away in 2026.

We have had a reasonable success with group ordering of Apsley Mulch, and deliveries have been made now. I hope that if we do this again the website is a bit more 'user friendly'.

'Making room in our gardens for wildlife' was the last meeting we had at the end of September, with Susan Simmonds of the Hampshire and Isle of Wight Wildlife Trust. The talk was both about the minutiae of helping wildlife of all sorts, as well as opening the prospect of big changes in the ways we use our garden. The Covid lock down was the opportunity for people to try 'No Mow' or improve diversity i.e.. more plant types, a range of flowering times, which showed what will happen when nature can take advantage.

The AGM, Social Evening and Quiz will be on November 27th in Cliddesden Millenium Hall from 7.30pm. Thanks to the efforts of so many the refreshments are wonderful, and it is a good opportunity to catch up and bring forward any gardening ideas and suggestions you have. The Quiz is in preparation now and will not be just Gardening, we will have some broader questions to help the evening. Generous prizes for the winners!!

Note to All - Subs are due by the AGM, Steve will be sending out a note with details of the subs and BACS payment, or, if you prefer, bring cash on the night. Membership remains at £12.00 per household.

The programme for next year is complete now and will be available by the AGM.

Enough has been said about the 'Mast Year', I hope you have been able to avoid falling acorns or conkers, have eaten some sweet chestnuts and hazel nuts, and maybe have some Sloe gin steeping in a dark cupboard. Bring on the apple pie!

The ladybirds have made headlines by sheer weight of numbers, good to see them and they are not a problem, they have clearly had a good season and eaten a lot of aphids.

Back to making a fantasy seed list for next year!!

This photo is a dahlia that I bought/rescued at the Plant Sale this year, and it has grown on well. It was marked as 'yellow?', but has turned out to be purple and white. I look forward to growing it for a few more years.

THE 2025 CLIDDESSEN PANTOMIME

Cliddesden Village Hall

“Catch a Falling Star” by Martin Amos

Friday 12th & Saturday 13th December 8.00pm

Saturday 1.30pm Matinee

Doors open 30mins before the performance begins

Start the festive season with a cracker of a Panto, written & directed by one of our very own Players. Suitable for children and adults alike you will encounter magic, bad-dies, goodies, a lot of laughs, jokes and, in strict Panto tradition, our gorgeous Dames (Ow, stop twisting my arm!).

Meet Father Christmas, a Snowman, an Elf and lots of toys. It's Christmas Eve and all should be calm and quiet but what is that Fairy up to and what has happened to the Star? Join in the adventure, say the magic words and watch what happens! Will harmony and kindness return before Christmas Day, we do hope so.

Box Office: Adults £10 Children (2-16) £5

At the Matinee the front rows of seating will comprise of “children only” seats to ensure that their view of the production is not compromised.

At evening performances all children must be seated with adults.

Contact: Jo Capehorn on 07528 856157 or email: events@cliddesdenhall.org.uk

Please advise if there are mobility difficulties or if a wheelchair user.

Information on how to pay will be given when tickets are ordered. Please note that no seats can be reserved without payment.

Licensed Premises. To limit transaction charges, we prefer to operate a CASH bar and refreshment service.

For your convenience, we have a card payment machine available for larger transactions.

If you can help with stage set-up the previous weekend, then please get in contact. There are lots of different jobs to do (carpentry, making props, painting, creating the sets) and a couple of hours help would be most welcome and appreciated. Contact Angie on: events@cliddesdenhall.org.uk

'NO TO UPPER SWALLICK' PROTEST AT THE BDBC OFFICES ON 04 SEPTEMBER

The demonstration was organised by StAnHD (Stand up for the North Hampshire Downs) at the BDBC Civic Offices on September 04, ahead of a meeting of the council's Environment and Infrastructure Committee which discussed the revised Spatial Strategy for the new Local Plan.

Due to Government's increased housing targets, site CLID011 Upper Swallick is now included in the new Draft Plan which has to provide for c17,250 additional homes across Basingstoke & Deane in the next 15 years.

Parish Council Chairman Alan Tyler said: 'We are not NIMBYs, our village has grown by over 15% in the last five years, we need new houses for the village to flourish and grow. However, what we don't need is 2,500 houses in a new so-called 'Garden Village'. Upper Swallick will concrete over Grade 1 farmland producing food for the country. It will concrete over the aquifer supplying fresh water to Basingstoke. It will add to the town's dire sewage problem as the infrastructure cannot cope. It will add to the electricity supply problem; diesel generators are being built on current housing estates to bring the supply up to standard.'

'We have 10,000 signatures on a petition seeking to protect this part of the countryside. We are not against our borough councillors who have their hands tied by Government edicts on Housing, a government which does not listen to Local Communities.'

CALL FOR GOVERNMENT TO SET 'SENSIBLE' HOUSING TARGET

From BDBC News release 10674, 23 Oct 2025

Fewer new homes should be planned for Basingstoke & Deane – putting less pressure on local communities, nature, schools and GPs – say council leaders in an appeal to Government.

BDBC Leader Cllr Paul Harvey and Co-leader Cllr Gavin James are urging the Government to reconsider the higher housing target set for the borough.

Writing to the Minister of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government, Matthew Pennycook MP, the leaders emphasise the good progress the council had been making until Government increased the number of new homes it had to plan for from 830 to around 1,150 per year.

Cllr Paul Harvey said: 'Before the

POLICE UPDATE

No recent report directly relating to Cliddesden.

In the wider area, I have received numerous reports in relation to drones being flown over properties and land in Upton Grey, Weston Patrick and the outskirts of Herriard.

From a Policing aspect there is little to investigate but I am very keen to find the area where the drone are being flown from and any index of cars in the vicinity parked in random areas near open fields.

The standard drone, despite it having a camera would provide very poor footage. The drone would need to be substantial in size and strong enough to carry a heavy camera with the facility to give infra red images. We have had two stolen from a car which was parked in a rural location earlier this year, which I suspect were high spec.

Ellisfield have had an increase in criminal damage, burglaries and other wildlife crime including an attempt to fire a catapult at a game keeper narrowly missing him but causing significant damage to his car.

Rural officers have been out in recent weeks conducting operations with other departments within Hampshire Police, as well as with bordering police forces and some gamekeepers, which has resulted in a vehicle seizure and obtained some valuable intelligence.

Please continue to report all suspicious incidents and crime through the correct channels either 101 / 999 as appropriate, or online. PCSO 13301 JONES and PC 21091 HOLDSWORTH are always keen to be contacted and kept in the loop as to what is happening within the local community.

Government upped the borough's housing targets, we had a Local Plan that would have worked.

'The new target risks undermining that progress, forcing extra development that puts unnecessary pressure on our borough's infrastructure and communities. We urge the Government to really look at our borough's circumstances and revise the housing target it has set to a more sensible level.'

The letter questions Government's plan for new infrastructure to support the additional development and its impact on existing infrastructure, local communities' identities and the borough's natural environment, including its precious chalk streams.

It also criticises the Government for encouraging a developer 'free for all' by setting higher housing targets that are more difficult for the borough to meet and which mean it can't achieve its required housing delivery for the next five years. Thus it has less power to refuse planning applications for land not in its Local Plan.

Cllr Gavin James said: 'If Government now wishes for significantly more homes to be built across Basingstoke & Deane, then we want it to explain to us how it will fund and deliver the critical infrastructure needed to support them.'

The council leaders invite the Government minister to join them in visiting Greenfield sites the council is now having to put forward for development as they explain why they believe the borough's housing numbers should be reconsidered.

GOVERNMENT URGED NOT TO 'WATER DOWN' NORTH WESSEX DOWNS PROTECTION

From News release 10673, 20 Oct 2025

BDBC Leaders are urging Government to retain a planning rule that helps to protect England's national parks from new development.

The law currently says public bodies must aim to 'further the purpose of' National Landscapes (formerly AONB) like the North Wessex Downs, which cover around a third of the borough of Basingstoke & Deane.

The Downs' ancient woodlands, globally rare chalk streams and other biodiverse habitats play an important role in supporting native wildlife and encouraging nature recovery. Recent reports including in The Times suggest Government is considering changing that 'duty' in the Planning and Infrastructure Bill to 'have regard to', potentially paving the way for new roads and housing developments in the Downs and England's other National Landscapes.

The leaders also invited Government to discussions about working with BDBC to grow the borough's economy while protecting its natural environment.

Cllr Paul Harvey said: 'We are lucky that the North Wessex Downs pass through our borough and we must protect this valuable landscape, which is home to rare habitats including some of the world's most important chalk streams and rivers. Given that loosening the protections for National Landscapes like these to allow more homes and infrastructure would be nothing short of environmental vandalism, neither I nor the co-leader genuinely believe the Government would propose such a move. But with the recent press coverage, for the sake of clarity we're asking them publicly to rule out any such change entirely.'

Cllr Gavin James said: 'The current protected landscapes "duty" helps to encourage nature recovery, clean up water, improve long-term food security and restore and enhance habitats in the North Wessex Downs.'

'The Government has already said suggestions it could weaken this environmental protection are pure speculation. I am therefore looking forward to a timely public statement that confirms this duty will stay as it is and puts a permanent end to any rumours or uncertainty.'

BDBC is one of nine local authorities that sit on the North Wessex Downs Council of Partners, whose 35 members are responsible for managing the National Landscape. The North Wessex Downs were formerly designated as an area of outstanding natural beauty (AONB) until November 2023 when – along with all other AONBs – it became known as a National Landscape.

This film is based on a true story. In 1920 Edith Swan (Olivia Colman), a devout Christian, becomes the target of hate mail, which causes great distress to her controlling father, Edward (Timothy Spall). He eventually goes to the police and their neighbour, a single mother and migrant, Rose (Jessie Buckley) is arrested.

Starring Olivia Colman, Timothy Spall,
 Jessie Buckley, Anjana Vasan, Joanna Scanlan, Gemma Jones and Malachi Kirby.

This musical film tells the story of P T Barnham (Hugh Jackman) and his journey to create a circus show in the 19th century. It shows the rise of Barnum from poverty, his creation of a show filled with unique performers and outcasts and the celebration of diversity and acceptance.

Starring Hugh Jackman, Zac Efron,
 Michelle Williams, Rebecca Fergusson, Zendaya, Keala Settle and Cameron Seely.

The children had a lot of fun alongside some worthwhile physical activity.

Wellbeing Ambassadors

Our Wellbeing Ambassadors have recently been trained as mental health first aiders. They run weekly drop in sessions for supporting the other children if they are feeling low or worried. They provide support and run activities to support mental health across the school.

Junior Leadership Team

Our Junior Leadership Team are Year 6 pupils who have leadership responsibilities. They are The Head Girl and Boy, The House Captains and The Sports Leaders. The duties of our Junior leadership team are to be ambassadors for the school, to be good role models to others and to support the Headteacher.

Football and Tag Rugby Leagues

Cliddesden have started well in the mixed Tag Rugby and the Boy's football leagues this Autumn. In Tag Rugby we have played the first meeting of 4 with our schools. We beat North Waltham and St John's but lost to Kempshott Juniors. In football we have played one match and we beat North Waltham 5-3. Next, we play Chiltern in November and our girls team take on St Mary's.
